Rutgers Football

Rutgers, The State University

Rutgers, The State University, which began as a struggling colonial college before the Revolution, is heading into its Bicentennial Year. The University has extensive plans for a year-long celebration of its 200th birthday.

Rutgers was founded in 1766 by Dutch pioneers and originally was called Queens College under a charter from King George III of England. The young college's existence was threatened by the Revolution, but growth followed that conflict, just as unprecedented expansion has been experienced since the last World War.

Rutgers was given its present name in 1825, after generous gifts had been received from Colonel Henry Rutgers, a New York philanthropist. Forty years later it was designated the Land Grant College of New Jersey, the liberal arts course was enlarged, and courses leading to bachelor degrees in agriculture and engineering were added.

In 1902 a ceramics department was established, New Jersey College for Women with its own New Brunswick campus, was founded in 1918; the School of Education added in 1923; and in 1925 the Extension Division for non-degree education and the School of Journalism were established. The College of Pharmacy was added in 1927, University College, degree-granting evening division, was established in 1934, and Newark University was merged with Rutgers in 1946. In 1945, the State Legislature brought all divisions of Rutgers within the designation of the State University of New Jersey. In 1950, an act of the State Legislature incorporated the College of South Jersey in Camden, including a two-year liberal arts college and a law school, into the State University as the Rutgers College of South Jersey. The liberal arts college has since expanded to a four-year curriculum. In April, 1955, N.J.C. was renamed Douglass College. In 1956, under a reorganization program, the University was officially designated, Rutgers, The State University, and came under the management of an 11-man Board of Governors.

Dr. Mason W. Gross, the 16th president of the University, was inaugurated in May, 1959.

Rutgers currently is completing a $50,000,000 construction program largely financed through passage in 1959 of a state bond issue. The Men's Colleges in New Brunswick have approximately doubled the 1957 enrollment (3,000 to 5,700).

The Rutgers Coaching Staff

John F. Bateman, Head Coach

BEGINNING his sixth season at Rutgers, John Bateman has led the Scarlet to a .674 winning percentage, with 31 wins in 46 games. Bateman's record includes the only undefeated season in the 96 years of Rutgers football—a 9-0 mark in 1961.

Bateman, who was an assistant at Columbia under Lou Little for 11 years and at Penn under Steve Sebo from 1957 through 1959, is a native New Jerseyman. He attended Central High and St. Benedict's prep in Newark before entering Columbia in 1934. He played guard under Little at Columbia, captaining the 1937 Lion eleven. He returned to Columbia as an assistant in 1946 after three years in the Navy and three years as coach at Middletown, N. Y., High School.

The holder of a master's degree in political science and a doctorate in education from Columbia, Dr. Bateman is Rutgers' 15th football coach since 1900. He and his wife have three sons. They live in Highland Park.

Matthew J. Bolger, Jr., Assistant Coach

ENTERING HIS 10th year at Rutgers, Matt Bolger served here four years under John Stigman and continued on the staff under John Bateman. Charged with coaching the offensive line, he formerly was end coach. Born and raised in Newark, he is a 1948 graduate of Cornell and coached five years at Brown before coming to Rutgers. A veteran of the Marine Air Corps, he has a 61-35-1 five-year record as coach of the Scarlet baseball team. Matt, his wife and three children live in Edison Township.

DeWayne "Dewey" King, Assistant Coach

A RENOWNED EXPERT on pass defense, Dewey King is in his sixth season at Rutgers. A graduate of the University of North Dakota, his staff responsibility is with the defense. A native of Cando, N. D., King was an assistant at Michigan State before serving from 1954 through 1959 as a Penn assistant under Steve Sebo. King, who lives in New Brunswick with his wife and two sons came to Rutgers with Bateman, who was a fellow assistant at Penn.

A book about pass defense by King, "Jericho," was published in 1963.

Frank Burns, Assistant Coach

RUTGERS' ALL-TIME great quarterback, Frank Burns returned to Rutgers in 1961 after four years at Chatham, N. J., High School. Burns twice previously served Rutgers, first as freshman coach and later as varsity backfield coach. He also was head coach at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore. A native of Roselle Park, Burns was an all-east quarterback and an outstanding catcher on the baseball team as an undergraduate. Burns, whose chief assignment is coaching the offense backfield, lives in Berkeley Heights with his wife and three children.

Robert Naso, Assistant Coach

A 1959 RUTGERS graduate, Bob Naso excelled in football and lacrosse as a player and in 1961-62 became varsity lacrosse coach and freshman football coach for his alma mater. He was assistant lacrosse coach for two years and in 1959 coached the 150-pound football team. When Warren Schmadel accepted the head coaching assignment at Boston U., Naso was promoted to the varsity staff as defensive line coach. Naso's four year lacrosse record is 27-18. Bob and his wife, Carole, live in New Brunswick. They have two daughters.

William J. Speranza, Freshman Coach

THE MOST recent addition to the Rutgers football staff, Bill Speranza quarterbacked (with Sam Mudie) the undefeated Rutgers eleven of 1961. In his three varsity football seasons, the new freshman coach participated on teams which won 23 of 27 games. Speranza, who also won three letters as a catcher-outfielder in baseball, was an assistant football coach at Liberty High, Bethlehem, Pa., in 1962 and 1963 before joining Bateman's staff last year.

Twitchell won six varsity letters as an undergraduate, captaining the 1934 football team as center and winning the Donald Leslie Coursen trophy, highest individual athletic award given at the University.

A native of Dedham, Mass., he began his coaching career at North Plainfield, N. J., High School. He went to Sewanhaka High School in 1937, served later as assistant football coach at Hofstra College, then returned to Sewanhaka as head coach of football and lacrosse until 1947.

He coached sub-varsity football and freshman lacrosse at Rutgers until he became varsity line coach in 1949 and succeeded his own former coach, Fred Fitch, as varsity lacrosse mentor in 1950. During his 12 seasons as lacrosse coach, his teams won 90 games, lost 31 and tied one. He became assistant to the director of athletics in 1952, later was named assistant director.

Twitchell is past president of the U. S. Lacrosse Coaches Assn. and the Inter-collegiate Lacrosse Assn. He coached the North all-star team in 1953 and was named "lacrosse coach of the year" in 1958.

He was freshman swimming coach from 1947 until 1956, when he succeeded the late Jim Reilly as varsity swimming coach. He relinquished that post to take over his present assignment and direct the University's aquatics program.

The Outlook — 1965

If Rutgers were facing 1965 with an established quarterback, optimism undoubtedly would pervade Coach John Bateman's pre-season remarks.

The prospects are fair to good, anyway, especially if you don't pay excessive attention to the schedule alterations. The opposition is a good deal stronger, including Army and Holy Cross in place of Penn and Delaware. Also, most of the Scarlet's opponents are expected to be as good or better than they were in 1964.

Although the outlook generally is favorable, there are problems which must be solved before the prospects definitely can become good, rather than just fair. Of the 22 starting positions (offense and defense), only 11 will be manned by the same players who were there in 1964.

Three other offensive posts will be filled by veterans who have been converted to new jobs. The remaining assignments, eight in all, will go to untested athletes.

Fullback also is just about set, with Rich Capria succeeding Brendel. Capria, a letter-winner, is almost as big as Brendel, is faster and holds his feet well.

The offensive uncertainties are at left guard, where sophomore John Allen, a 6-0, 205-pounder, has been given the early nod, and quarterback.

Jack Callaghan rates the first shot at QB, and could be a carbon copy of last year's ace, Roger Kalinger. Callaghan won a letter at right halfback last year. He is a good runner and short passer. If he fails the test, then Bateman and his aides will have to pick among juniors Fred Eckert (good field general), Bob Kenny (good passer) and Alan Greaves, a tall, slender sophomore.

THE DEFENSE: The set jobs are end (Garth Weber), tackle (Jerry Sertick), middle guard (Tom Connelly), line backers (Bob Brush and Bob Schroeder) and safety (George Lamb). Chet Ward, who will double at left halfback, is expected to hold down the all-important corner linebacker position. Sampson Brown, a 26-year-old Marine veteran, will get first crack at the other tackle post. A sophomore, Scott Lewendon, has been assigned the vacant end job. The defensive fullback, who plays either middle or corner linebacker, probably will be Lou Tepper, an intense football student, who saw little action last year. The open deep back position will go to Bill Carroll, Skip Flanagan or Denny McGorry, all juniors.

There are a number of others, jayvee graduates and sophomores, who are counted on to push the "paper" first stringers and provide depth.

The season hinges on the opening statement, however. A good quarterback can compensate for other shortcomings. Stegmann, Mudie and Capria are fine running backs, Jack Hohnstine is a good kicker, either of extra points or field goals, and there are some excellent linemen, specifically Kenny, Sertick, Connelly, Schroeder and the pass-catching twins, Stohrer and Emmer.

The Leading Scarlet Knights

The 1965 Captain

G. PETER SAVIDGE, senior center. A two-way fill-in as a sophomore, Pete played almost exclusively on offense last year and is expected to fill the same role again. . . . He is the twin brother of Princeton's captain, G. Paul Savidge . . . Pete has exceptional quickness. Blocking ability rates as his number one skill . . . Same art helps him in lacrosse, where last spring he was named second team All-America on defense . . . Was three-sport standout at the Hun School . . . Sociology student.

Ends

GARY BENKE, junior. Gary was not invited to pre-season camp in 1964, but reported after season had begun. He made enough of an impression in jayvee ball to earn a bid this fall . . . Brother of former Scarlet standout Paul Benke '61 . . . Starred in basketball at Belvidere High . . . Biological Sciences student.

ROBERT BRENDDEL, senior. Bob, last year's rushing leader, will be moved to end in the fall to strengthen a light left side of the line and make way for Rich Capria at fullback. Brendel was rushing leader last year, but played right end first five games of varsity career in 1963 . . . At 6-3, 215, should help blocking on "weak" side of line. Also is good pass catcher and will do all of team's punting . . . River Dell High graduate . . . Sociology student.

JOHN EMMER, junior. Although he didn't start a game last fall, Jack Emmer led the team in pass receiving and may be one of best around . . . Has great moves and faking ability, better than average speed . . . Shares split end post with senior Bob Stohrer . . . The Mineola (N. Y.) High alumnus sparkled as defenseman in lacrosse last spring . . . Physical Education student.

FRED BERNATH, senior. Fred has yet to earn a letter, but no one tries harder or deserves it more. He didn't play frosh ball, spent 1963 on jayvees. Broken finger early held him back last year. He's grown up to 6-3, 195 and could be two-way fill-in, as split end and on defense . . . Honor student in chemical engineering, having achieved election to Tau Beta Pi . . . Graduate of Edison High School.

J. SCOTT LEWENDEN, sophomore. Scott is one of the few sophomores who has a better-than-even chance to earn varsity ranking. Carried on the pre-season depth chart as first string defensive end . . . Earned praise from freshman staff for play last fall, rated top end prospect . . . The Plainfield High alumnus also threw discus for frosh track team . . . Civil Engineering student.

JOHN SCHOELLER, senior. John ranked right behind regulars at defensive end last fall, but never quite made grade . . . Has opportunity to be top reserve this fall . . . Was winner of 13 letters at Swedesboro High School . . . Physical Education student.

ROBERT STOHRER, senior. With Jack Emmer, Bob Stohrer forms a great deep pass-catching threat for the Scarlet. They split the wide end chores and stay fresh by frequently relieving each other. Stohrer, as the senior, will start. Last year, one catch behind Emmer for team lead in receiving . . . Also plays baseball . . . Member of junior honorary society . . . Business Administration student.

GARTH WEBER, junior. When Jim Hackett suffered a broken leg midway through the pre-season practice last fall, Garth Weber was handed a first-string job and never let it go . . . He was member of defensive line which helped Rutgers to a fifth place national ranking in rushing defense . . . Weber also played midfield on lacrosse team . . . Junior honorary society member . . . Sociology student.

Tackles

SAMPSON BROWN, junior. No one has more rooters hoping he makes the grade than Sam Brown. A Marine veteran, this 26-year-old father returned to football last fall, eight years since he had played at Rahway High. . . Saw limited action at guard, now has a shot at defensive tackle . . . Physical Education student.

ERNEST EDWARDS, sophomore. The first string center on last year's frosh eleven, Edwards has been converted to tackle, with the prospects of going both ways as a top reserve . . . Graduate of East Orange High, he now lives in Matawan. . . Also played frosh lacrosse . . . Civil engineering student, hopes to become architect.

JOSEPH (Marty) FRANKIEWICZ, sophomore. Enrolled in the five-year civil engineering program, Marty chose not to play last fall after earning a starting role as a freshman end in 1963 . . . Has been converted to tackle where he probably will battle Jim Hackett, another end convert, for offensive assignment . . . Also excelled in basketball at Elyria, Ohio, High.

JAMES HACKETT, senior. A letterman at defensive end in 1963, Jim suffered a broken fibula after two weeks of fall drills last year and was out the entire season. Graduate of Northern Valley Regional High . . . History student.

CLAUDE McALLISTER, senior. Claude has been close to a regular job the last two seasons, but never has quite made it . . . Is all-out competitor, lacks quickness . . . Has been reserve catcher on baseball team . . . Bridgeton High alumnus . . . Animal Science student in College of Agriculture.

ROBERT TESTA, junior. After arriving late for fall practice last season, Bob never had a chance to make the "varsity." Was one of top frosh linemen in 1963, however, and could earn regular berth or top reserve post . . . Attended Amherst Central High, near Buffalo, N. Y. . . Agriculture student.

Guards

JOHN ALLEN, sophomore. A starting member of the 1963 freshman eleven, John dropped out of school for a year, returned last January . . . One of few sophomores expected to play immediately . . . Constantly makes second and third effort, frequently makes tackles on perimeter as well as own area . . . Graduate of Bergen Catholic High . . . Student in agricultural economics.

THOMAS GEROSKY, junior. The proverbial "fireplug" guard type, Tom at 5-9, 210-pounds, could be of considerable help to Scarlet either on offense or defense if he can control temper . . . Has been plagued by penalties in past . . . Is graduate of Elizabeth (Pa.) High . . . Liberal Arts student.

For 1965, he will shift to the right, or pulling guard . . . Gene has one of highest academic averages on squad . . . North Plainfield High alumnus is business student.

ROBERT SCHROEDER, junior. One of the most able players on the squad, Bob may be a two-way performer in 1965, handling guard duties offensively and line-backing chores on defense . . . Has size, speed, quickness plus ability . . . Played regularly as sophomore, forcing Capt. Bob Norton to share duties . . . Graduate of Lindenhurst (N. Y.) High . . . Agricultural-Business major.

JOSEPH URBANICK, sophomore. The outstanding guard prospect from the 1964 frosh eleven, Urbanick could make the varsity this fall . . . Is graduate of Euclid, O., High . . . Majoring in Liberal Arts.

Centers

FRANK KROLL, junior. The brother of Alex Kroll, who earned All-America honors in 1961, Frank was a jayvee in 1964 . . . Coaching staff is undecided whether he is best at center or on defense . . . Graduate of Leechburg, Pa., High . . . Liberal Arts student.

PETER SAVIDGE, senior. (See captain, beginning of section.)

Quarterbacks

JACK CALLAGHAN, senior. Few varsities will enter a season with a number one quarterback less experienced than Callaghan. Although he lettered last fall, most of playing time was at halfback . . . Is quarterback of the Kalinger type, standing out as runner and short passer. Has great confidence, could be ideal . . . Probably fastest back on team . . . Graduate of Allentown (Pa.) Catholic . . . History student.

FREDERICK ECKERT, junior. Unspectacular as a passer or runner, Fred has demonstrated the important knack of moving the team during junior varsity games . . . His ball-handling and play-calling are better-than-average and he could threaten Callaghan's hold on the QB job . . . Graduate of Worcester Academy . . . Enrolled in College of Agriculture and Environmental Science.

ROBERT KENNY, junior. Perhaps the best passer among the returning varsity quarterbacks, Bob has good size and strength, but needs to improve his field generalship . . . Was standout pitcher on last spring's baseball team . . . Twin brother Ron is starting offensive tackle . . . Northern Valley Regional High graduate . . . History student.

Should upperclassmen falter, he could step in and take charge . . . Was teammate of fullback Rich Capria at Levittown (N. Y.) Memorial . . . Agricultural economics student.

Halfbacks

WILLIAM CARROLL, junior. Bill surprised almost himself when he made the squad last fall, impressing as a pass-catcher . . . Ball hawking prompted a tryout at defensive back and he could make starting deep unit . . . Was regular midfielder on last spring's lacrosse team . . . Graduate of Calvert Hall High (Md.) . . . Liberal Arts student.

HENRY FLANAGAN, junior. "Skip," who is a lacrosse midfielder in the spring, reported late last fall, but has great speed and could play either at right half-back or on defense . . . Most of his jayvee service was on offense, but speed could be big asset as deep back . . . Graduate of St. Pauls Prep (Md.) . . . Journalism student.

GEORGE LAMB, senior. A letter-winner the past two seasons, George may be one of the top defensive backs in the area this year . . . Had three interceptions last fall, one in 1963, has great speed and is aggressive tackler . . . Also has ball-carrying ability, but will play mostly on defense . . . Was standout midfielder in lacrosse . . . Woodrow Wilson High (Camden) alumnus . . . Majoring in general agriculture.

DENNIS MCGORRY, junior. Denny is an aspirant for the job as corner linebacker. . . . He backed up John Canavan at this post last fall, but his action was confined to jayvee games . . . Was teammate of Jack Callaghan at Allentown (Pa.) Catholic . . . Majoring in biology.

CHARLES MUDIE, junior. From the very first game last year, it was apparent Charley wasn't going to have to stand on the name made by his brother, Sam. . . . Charley ran, blocked and caught well, all despite a constantly annoying hamstring injury. The right halfback job is his, without a fight . . . Also excelled as lacrosse midfielder . . . Graduate of Bensalem (Pa.) High . . . Physical Education student.

SIDNEY RHINES, sophomore. Exceptionally quick and blessed with unusual jumping ability, Sid could make the squad either at defensive back or at a flanker position (wide end). . . High jumped 6-3 in high school, but injuries held down his jumping last spring . . . May be too light for running back duties, but has good broken field ability . . . Summit High graduate . . . Physical Education student.

RALF STEGMANN, junior. Although he split left halfback chores and played very little in the first two games, Ralf was number two in rushing last fall . . . Has excellent speed, pass catching ability, showed breakaway knack . . . May run more this fall with Chet Ward ticketed for at least some defensive duties . . . Attended River Dell High and Manlius Prep, now lives in Bardonia, N. Y. . . . Liberal Arts student.

CHESTER WARD, senior. A fast, hard, slashing runner, Chet may find himself playing the corner position on defense at times this fall . . . Has natural defensive ability, should be good protection against deep pass threats . . . Gained 313 yards last fall, caught 15 passes and led squad in scoring with 30 points . . . New Castle, Pa., alumnus, ran track last spring in sprints . . . Ceramics student.

Fullbacks

RICH CAPRIA, junior. The great promise Rich displayed last year in limited action prompted shift of Bob Brendel to left end . . . Big and strong, Capria is hard to stop, has good blocking ability . . . Also can catch well . . . Graduate of Levittown (N. Y.) Memorial . . . Electrical Engineering student.

ROBERT MATTSON, junior. Bob played quarterback as a freshman and did some good running, which led to shift to fullback last fall . . . Played mostly with jayvee squad, running as well as linebacking . . . North Plainfield High graduate . . . Sociology student.

DONALD RIESETT, sophomore. Don was the most impressive runner from fullback on last fall's frosh eleven . . . Has good straight-ahead running ability, also blocking talent . . . His availability doubly-insured transfer of Brendel to end. . . . Calvert Hall (Md.) graduate . . . Liberal Arts student.

LOUIS TEPPER, junior. Lou is the heir apparent to Don Viggiano's line-backing spot, either as the middle man in 5-3 defense or cornerman in the 5-4 . . . Is explosive hitter, either as blocker or tackler, a serious student of football . . . Graduate of Derry, Pa., High . . . Physical Education student.

PRINCETON PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 20, Lettermen Lost: 17

After an undefeated season, it's hard to predict what a team will do. Princeton has some excellent athletes returning, headed by what Coach Dick Colman calls a pair of linemen "equal to any in the East," co-captain Paul Savidge and Stas Maliszewski. But the Tigers have lost some outstanding players, including the driving fullback, Cosmo Iacavazzi.

Colman feels the development of a blocking back and the rebuilding of the backfield are keys to another good year. Tailback Ron Landeck, field goal specialist Charley Gogolak and defensive back Chuck Merlini are leading Tigers.

With no hardback, Dunlap hopes to go to the two-platoon system, and high on linebacker Floyd Koch.

CONNECTICUT PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 20; Lettermen Lost: 12

In the second year of a rebuilding program, Coach Rick Forzano is satisfied with UConn's progress to date. He doesn't feel that 1965 will be UConn's "year," but he does feel team speed and depth will be better than it was a year ago.

Halfback is the team's best position, with five lettermen, all with good speed. Center is the best line post. Depth is needed at ends, quarterback and fullback. Dave Whaley is the heir apparent at quarterback and Co-captains Beau Billingslea, halfback, and ~~Larry McGowan~~ Ted to shift to fullback last fall . . . Played mostly with jayvee squad, running as well as linebacking . . . North Plainfield High graduate . . . Sociology student.

LEHIGH PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 13; Lettermen Lost: 14

Since the Lambert Cup champions of 1961 (7-2), Lehigh has fallen on dark days, with only five wins over the last three seasons. On this background, new coach Fred Dunlap has moved in with some new assistants and a new spirit. He was "highly pleased" the way things went in spring practice.

Dunlap's chief move was to take last year's alternating quarterbacks, Les Kish and Bob Draucker, and give each a job. Draucker was installed at the QB post, Kish went to halfback. Dunlap hopes to go to the two-platoon system. The new coach is high on linebacker Floyd Koch.

ARMY PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 15; Lettermen Lost: 15

Paul Dietzel has moved to a new, wide open offense, starting from an I formation, but has put most of his lettermen on defense. All of this could add up to a lot more passing than one is used to from Army, with Fred Barofsky doing the throwing.

Army has some outstanding athletes, including Sonny Stowers, now a flanker back; Sam Champi, at end; linebackers Townsend Clarke and Pete Braun and tackle John Carber. Depth is the chief Army problem, with molding a new backfield (all players are new) rating a close second.

DONALD RIESETT, sophomore. Don was the most impressive runner from fullback on last fall's frosh eleven . . . Has good straight-ahead running ability, also blocking talent . . . His availability doubly-insured transfer of Brendel to end. . . . Calvert Hall (Md.) graduate . . . Liberal Arts student.

COLUMBIA PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 19; Lettermen Lost: 13

With Archie Roberts, Columbia had a 2-6-1 record last year. Much of the Lions' difficulties were the result of a long list of injuries. Without Roberts, Columbia is minus a thrilling, talented quarterback, who can break a game open at any point, but the Lions are expected to produce a better record.

The reason is more overall experience, especially in the line, and a flock of good backs. The key areas for Columbia will be quarterback, where Rick Ballantine and Bob Peters will battle for Roberts' job, and center, where Jack Strauch and Pat Sheehan are gone. If Coach Buff Donelli can get good men at these posts, the Lions will be strong.

BOSTON UNIVERSITY'S PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 21; Lettermen Lost: 7

No one expects miracles from Warren Schmabel's squad, but there is reason for optimism in the Terrier camp. Fifteen of the first 22 players on the pre-season depth chart lettered last fall. Schmabel was forced to use green sophomores in 1964 and is counting on their development this fall.

Fullback is the Terriers' best position, with Billy Murphy and Pete Hayes back. Jim Fischer and Bob Nichols are a pair of good receivers for their Bob Kobus or Dave LaRoche to hit with passes. Tackle Larry Dyer and center Dick Stawitsky are line standouts.

DONALD RIESETT, sophomore. Don was the most impressive runner from fullback on last fall's frosh eleven . . . Has good straight-ahead running ability, also blocking talent . . . His availability doubly-insured transfer of Brendel to end. . . Calvert Hall (Md.) graduate . . . Liberal Arts student.

LAFAYETTE'S PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 19; Lettermen Lost: 14

Coach Ken Bunn is counting on an outstanding sophomore crop, up from last year's undefeated frosh squad, in his third season as head coach. George Hossenlopp, a gifted quarterback, will be missed but the Leopards have three sophs and a junior to pick up their running game. The promising newcomers include halfbacks Bill Messick and Chris Yaniger and fullback Joel Crossrow.

The Leopards have two find ends in Gabe Washo and Dave Brown. Co-captain Tom Rosenberg anchors the line at center. If the sophs develop the Leopards could be dangerous.

By a pair of outstanding linebackers in Ray Ilg and John Paske. Tom Wilson, who had six interceptions, is a top defensive back and Tom Carpenter a solid halfback.

HOLY CROSS PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 28; Lettermen Lost: 15

A new coach, Mel Massucco, has 28 lettermen plus some talented sophomores on hand from last year's varsity, but the lack of spring practice will handicap the transition to a new system.

The ~~Crusaders~~ are a pair of good receivers for their ~~positions~~. Dave LaRoche to hit with passes. Tackle Larry Dyer and center Dick Stawitsky are line standouts.

DONALD RIESETT, sophomore. Don was the most impressive runner from fullback on last fall's frosh eleven . . . Has good straight-ahead running ability, also blocking talent . . . His availability doubly-insured transfer of Brendel to end. . . Calvert Hall (Md.) graduate . . . Liberal Arts student.

LOUIS TEPPER, junior. Lou is the heir apparent to Don Viggiano's line-backing spot, either as the middle man in 5-3 defense or cornerman in the 5-4 . . . Is explosive hitter, either as blocker or tackler, a serious student of football . . . Graduate of Derry, Pa. High . . . Physical Education student.

COLGATE PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 20; Lettermen Lost: 13

With 13 regulars returning from last year's fine team, Colgate should once again be able to put together a good record. The chief need of Coach Hal Lahar is a quarterback to replace the graduated Gerry Barudin. Buff Platt, a good passer, may be the choice.

Colgate's strong point may be its line, especially its defensive forwards, backed up by a pair of outstanding linebackers in Ray Ilg and John Paske. Tom Wilson, who had six interceptions, is a top defensive back and Tom Carpenter a solid half-back.

FOOTBALL'S FIRST GAME

The first official inter-collegiate football game was played on Nov. 6, 1869 between Rutgers and Princeton. There were 25 men on a side and goals, rather than touchdowns were scored. Rutgers won the inaugural, 6-4, with the game played on the site now occupied by the Rutgers Gymnasium.

Although the game was much like rugby, it was the fore-runner of present day football. Soon, Columbia, Yale and other schools began to play and the game pioneered in New Brunswick has become one of the world's most exciting spectacles.

To recognize New Brunswick as football's birthplace, sportswriters, football officials and fans in 1949 selected the city for the location of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame.

It is interesting to note that William J. Leggett, captain of Rutgers first team, later became a distinguished clergyman of the Dutch Reformed Church. His counterpart, William Gunnere of Princeton, later became chief justice of the Supreme Court of New Jersey.

Football people are proud that so many of the game's standout players become standout citizens. It is their firm belief that football is one of the prime contributors in molding the character and personalities of our future leaders.
